School Advisory Council Minutes

Nov. 27, 2012

Members Present: Pam Hatch, Becky Lloyd, Angel Thomas, Miriam Davis, Tammy Boyle, Lynn Stockman

I. Call to Order: Time: 5:40 pm.
Pam Hatch called the meeting to order and facilitated the meeting.

II. Meeting Minutes: There were no meeting minutes to present due to the SAC Secretary being home sick.

III. Treasurer's Report: Becky Lloyd presented the Treasurer's Report, stating the balance of the School Recognition Funds to be $728.86. There had been no change since the planned, but cancelled, meeting in October.

IV. PTO Update: Tammy Boyle (parent) shared about a number of PTO activities, past and upcoming.

a. Scholastic Book Fair money earned from the past two book fairs was shared with the CES librarian, Mary Jane Stalvey. She was given $1,071 to spend on books for the library. The books were ordered, have come in, and she is currently cataloging them for circulation.
b. The CES Fall Festival cost PTO about $1500. A profit of $3220 was earned by participating grade levels and was distributed accordingly. Little Caesars donated Halloween goody bags for the children to gather their treats in.
c. The Yankee Candle fundraiser made a profit of $6813.
d. Upcoming- Santa Shop from 12/10 – 12/14.
e. Upcoming- Santa Claus will make his annual trip to CES to visit all students. He will present them with an apple and a pencil.

Lynn Stockman (parent) also shared about PTO's recent activities. She is in charge of the Box Top fundraiser. For the first nine weeks, 2,149 box tops were turned in. Mrs. Lloyd's 2nd grade class brought in the most and won a cupcake and juice party. T. Pate in Ms. McElroy's 1st grade class brought in the most individually and will receive an award and a $5 gift certificate to spend at the CES School Store.

Next, Ms. Stockman arranged a UF vs. FSU box top challenge. In just three weeks, 1748 box tops were brought in, with the Gators on top. Balloons and a results poster are on display in the lunchroom.

Ms. Stockman stated that Box tops should be sending them a check for $812.15 in earnings in the near future. She also shared that more box tops can be earned by shopping through their website. Ideas were generated as to how best to get this info to parents. A. Thomas suggested adding it to the Drumbeat, and B. Lloyd suggested copying it on the back of the Box Top coloring collection pages sent home with students.

V. Old Business: The agenda showed membership business concerning October FTE counts. Due to the facilitator's absence, Ms. Hatch will check into it.

VI. New Business:

a. SIP- A. Thomas stated that the SIP is currently in revision with input. The term 'AYP' has been replaced with 'AMO', which means Annual Measurable Outcome. She has been researching the new different goals. T. Boyle (parent), who serves on the district SAC, stated that they have been asked to compare SIP's across the county and turn their feedback in by Dec. 10th. She commented that ours "looks good".
b. Professional Development: A. Thomas stated that there are no concerns in this area at this time, other than wishing there was more time for its implementation.
c. End-of-Year Awards: A. Thomas shared that there will be changes this year to the end-of-year awards. CES will continue giving out academic achievement awards as usual, but A. Thomas plans to also have a Kindergarten and a 5th grade graduation ceremony. Kindergarten's will be one evening, and 5th grade's will be on the next-to-last day of school.

VII. Dismiss: B. Lloyd made a motion to adjourn and it was seconded by T. Boyle. Meeting adjourned at 6:05 pm.
